

Music to Remember

Oakwood Cemetery's Musician in Residence will perform on Saturday May 27 at 7pm.

Historic Oakwood Cemetery's Musician in Residence, Philip Sasser, will be joined by local musicians Michael Holm, Dayne Shelor, and Curtis August on May 27 to create a unique musical evening in one of Raleigh's most revered locations. "The goal is not to just plop down some random music in a graveyard, but to let the spirit of the place suggest what songs belong there. Traditional and original folk tunes, old hymns, shape-note anthems, and the Great American Songbook - all of that has been mined and jumbled together to make a body of work that is of piece with the setting we'll be in. It's music that's not meant to travel well." Attendees are encouraged to bring blankets and picnic baskets. The event will begin at 7:00, gates will open at 6:30.

